

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1897.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Hon. A. M. J. Cochran was in Flemingsburg yesterday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver of Cincinnati is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George W. Oldham.

Colonel Dan Shafer has returned from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Joseph Shelton, at Hiett, O.

Mr. W. R. Varian of Covington was called yesterday by the serious illness of Mr. J. C. Ballenger.

Hon. George M. Thomas of Vanceburg was a caller on THE LEDGER yesterday. He was en route to Frankfort, to see up the political situation at the Capital.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

Mr. Henry Spremberg is on the sick list.

Meals served at all hours at Roper's New Era.

Mrs. George A. Dawney of Lewis county gets a pension.

Bananas 10 cents per doz., Oranges 3 doz. 25 cents, Saturday at Martin Bros.

Mrs. Nellie Wood, who has been quite ill at Washington for some weeks, is improving.

Eddie Schwarz has gone to Portsmouth to take a place in one of the big show factories there.

Mr. W. O. Holmes of Augusta, formerly of this city, has a pretty little daughter at his house.

A three-and-a-half pound muskrat was yesterday captured at Dawson Bros. Stable in the Sixth Ward.

A number of our citizens went to Vanceburg yesterday—to see how the recent floods had affected matters.

The E. S. Dean Company of Louisville wants an agent in this city—one who has knowledge of trading in grain.

W. B. Stubblefield, Robert Cooper and H. V. Rigen have been chosen to appraise the personality of the late Travis C. Glascow.

Bruce Snapp, aged 22, and Miss Mollie Osborne, aged 19, both of this county, will be married on March 17th, at the home of the bride's parents.

Are you needing Table, Dessert or Tea Kives and Forks? If so, P. J. Murphy, the jeweler, is showing an elegant line of "Pearl" handles, "Sterling Silver" and Rogers & Bros' 1837 goods. We have low prices if you need the goods.

Joseph Shelton of Abencon was killed a few days ago, a bullet of the tunnels on the L. and N. between this city and Carlisle. His Administrator sued the Railway Company for damages. Judge Harbenon decided against the Administrator in the Fleming Circuit Court, and the Court of Appeals has just sustained Judge Harbenon.

Saturday's Special.

Fancy Bananas, 10 cents a dozen; one quart of Cranberries, 5 cents.

R. B. LOVEL.

WILL MARRY SOON.

A Worthy Maysville Man Who Has Won a Lovely Kentucky Girl.

THE LEDGER will surprise a goodly number of its readers by the announcement, but it is always foremost with good news.

Mr. Garrett B. Wall of this city will on the 20th of April wed Miss Louise De Montmolin of Ashland.

The bride-elect is one of Northeastern Kentucky's most beautiful and accomplished society belles, a graceful horsewoman, finished musician and vocalist, and a talented artist, while claiming a charm of manner and sweetness of disposition that holds her a universal favorite in those circles that know and ever welcome her. Miss De Montmolin is a graduate of the Young Ladies' Seminary at Harrodsburg.

The fortunate groom is a son of Hon. and Mrs. Garrett S. Wall, a native of this city, and it is no flattery to say that he is one of the most promising young men that have gone out from the devoted old town.

His home is now at Richmond, Va., where he holds a responsible position with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, and to which he was recently promoted by reason of his sterling worth.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Wall will make their residence in Richmond.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER-SIGNAL.

WEATHER-SIGNAL:

Block—Rain or Sleet
With Block Above—Twill Warm
Glow.
If Block's beneath—Golden Twill
Unless Block's shown—no change will see.

For above forecasts are made for a period of time, starting at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Fire Insurance—John C. Everett.

All kinds of Fancy Mixed Drinks at Roper's New Era.

Hopululu has a population of 109,020, of which number 5,000 are Americans.

Sam Rayner, the Grayce boy who swallowed a piece of pipestem, died in great agony.

Commencing Monday, March 15th, you can get a regular meal at Roper's New Era for 35 cents.

There was only one bid and the Monon sold for $3,000,000. The reorganization takes place about May 1st.

James Duane Livingston has resigned as Vice-President and General Manager of the Lexington and Eastern Railroad.

A. Glascow has qualified as Administrator of the late Travis C. Glascow, with Charles B. Pearce, Jr., as surety.

A fund between friends of Cooper and Day, but of Mt. Sterling, may result on account of the primary election for Day.

Mr. Hunter now claims that he will receive fifty-one votes in the joint Republican can, and that in the joint section to elect a United States Senator he will receive seventy-five votes.

A full line of Notions, Novelties and the latest styles of Millinery just opened by Miss Anna Frazer, 297 Court Street, second door from State National Bank.

Goods new, artistic, and of latest style. Satisfaction in material, make up and price guaranteed. Will appreciate patronage of all old friends as well as public generally. Call and inspect.

THE NEW CENTRAL.

Maysville Very Proud of the Handsome Hotel She Now Possesses.

When the Central Hotel property was purchased several months since by Messrs. James W. Fitzgerald, H. B. Daugherty and P. Sammons, all well known citizens, it was the intention of the new owners to give Maysville the finest hotel in her history, and at the same time one of the best conducted Hotels in the state, and how well the aims of these enterprising men have been carried out can best be seen by a visit to the New Central.

After the fire some time since which damaged the old Hotel, work was commenced as soon as possible on extensive alterations and improvements throughout the entire building.

The kitchen and pantry, which suffered most, have been completely rebuilt, enlarged and newly equipped, and a new laundry room erected on the second floor.

Halls, stairways, parlors and bed rooms alike have been overhauled, repapered and repainted, handsome new carpets cover the floors, and elegant new furniture takes the place of that found in the building when the new owners came into possession.

In the dining room a new steel ceiling has been put on, the walls repapered and repainted, and to make the already handsome room complete, a new outfit of queensware and table-wares have been ordered to grace the tables.

The reading-room has also been remodeled, and a pleasing feature in the improvements is the toilet or bath room found on each of the three floors.

The proprietors contemplate remodeling and modernizing the front of the building this spring, and before next winter, will arrange to heat the building throughout with steam.

Messrs. Lane & Werrick, Carpenters; Mr. George H. Traxel, Plumber, and Messrs. Crane and Haucke, Painters and Paper-hangars, have had charge of the elegant work done on the building.

The New Central is a larger institution than is generally thought, having on its payroll twenty-two persons, thus paying payroll weekly quite a sum sum in wages alone.

Maysville may well feel proud of her handsome Hotel, and Messrs. Fitzgerald, Daugherty & Sammons are certainly to be congratulated on the success of their enterprise.

Old Limestone Bourbon and Rye always in stock at John Briscoe's.

Farmers and gardeners should inspect Landreth's Garden Seed at Cheneauw's Drugstore before buying others. They are superior to any on the market.

See my Sample Books Wallpaper—over 400 new varieties as shown by Alfred Peat's magnifico Chicago and New York stores. Paper Hanging and Painting done in best style. P. M. McCARTHY.

Special Cash Savings—Bank on stamped new stock, 41 West Second street, opposite State National Bank.

McCLANAHAN & SURE.

Carlin and Clark, these natural funny Dutchmen, will keep the audience in fits of laughter with their funny songs and sayings. They will be with "The Song and Dance Craze" when it comes to the Opera-house March 17th.

On the back of the paper in this case he wrote:

"A majority of the Jury in these cases certify that the defendants are unjustly and illegally confined in the Penitentiary. In view of the fact that their confinement is by reason of the verdict of these same persons, it occurs to me that the statement is inconsistent, and a reflection on those making it. Refused."

JOBS ANOTHER JURY.

Governor Bradley's Comment in Refusing an Application for Pardon.

Governor Bradley gave another Jury a "dig" the other day.

Among a long list of applications for pardons was that of the case of Enoch and Erwin Lewis of Greenup county, convicted of malicious shooting.

On the back of the paper in this case he wrote:

"A majority of the Jury in these cases certify that the defendants are unjustly and illegally confined in the Penitentiary. In view of the fact that their confinement is by reason of the verdict of these same persons, it occurs to me that the statement is inconsistent, and a reflection on those making it. Refused."

SAMUEL S. ENGLISH.

He is Highly Respected By All His Acquaintances in Louisville.

The marriage of Miss Lydia B. Owens of this city and Mr. Samuel S. English of Louisville was mentioned in yesterday's LEDGER, and it is gratifying to know that her husband is a most worthy gentleman, who is also spoken of in Wednesday's Louisville Times:

"Mr. Samuel S. English of this city and Miss Lydia Owens of Maysville were married this morning at Cincinnati. The announcement of the marriage will be a surprise to the many friends of Mr. English in this city. He left the city yesterday afternoon and made his intended bride in Cincinnati by appointment. The bride is a handsome and accomplished lady. She is a member of a wealthy family and possesses in her own right a handsome fortune. Her acquaintance with Mr. English dates back several years.

"Mr. and Mrs. English will reside in this city. Mr. English will take the position of advertising manager for the Grand Opera house, which was made vacant by the recent death of Mr. Clarence Peot.

He is a son of the late Senator Sam English and a nephew of Judge Hoke. He was formerly connected with The Times local staff."

WAS KEEPING "TAB."

Fleming County Man Who Recorded All His Outgoings and Incoming.

The Flemingsburg Gazette prints a "register" that was picked up in the wake of the late tollgate raiders, which shows the tact as well as manner in the owner's method of getting rich.

The frequency of the entry "for prescription" will be fully understood by only those who live in Prohibition towns.

Below are the entries; and it will be noticed that the "enterer" belongs to the great army which kicks on newspaper subscription bills:

Jan. 10th—Sod holder to Bowden. $25.00
Got barrel sugar from Ames. 16.75
Overcoat of T. H. Dudley 13.50

Jan. 11th—Sod holder old cow 16.00
Paid for prescription 25

Feb. 1st—Two hogs to Bowden. 30.25
Got coal from Dudley. 7.50
Dinner at T. H. Dudley's 13.00

Feb. 3d—Sod holder me barrel sugar for 15.00
Took sugar for paid. 5.00
Paid for prescription 25

Paid for spirits. 2.50
Feb. 5th—Oliver Child Jr. Bowden. 8.00
Hired ice for Bowden. 4.50

Feb. 6th—Sod holder old cow 16.00
$25.00 [illegible] can't make it off me. 9.00

Feb. 10th—Dudley dummed up for paper. 1.00
Only submiss for one 2.00
200 lbs. of sugar for one year. 12.50
For one year. Don't like the paper now. 2.50

Feb. 15th—Sod holder old cow 16.00
Paid for prescription 25

Feb. 20th—Sod holder beef 10.00
Apr. 1st—Sold Fleming boy. 20.00
Got bill for groceries. 22.00

Apr. 10th—Went for Dr. Garr at mid-morning. 38.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00
Jun. 10th—Paid for paper. 3.00

Jun. 10th

HEAVY RAINS

In Southern Indiana is Causing Great Alarm.

White River is Rising Rapidly and the Water is Rushing

Through the Crevasses Near Harrison at the Rate of 15 Miles an Hour—Several Railroads May Abandon Their Service Temporarily.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 12.—Heavy rain Thursday afternoon and Thursday night in Southern Indiana has caused great alarm among the railroad officials of the city. The Evansville and Terre Haute railroads have been closed at the scene of the wreck of the Chicago and Nashville limited near Hazelton, Ind., but they are unable to make any progress toward clearing the great amount of mud. The White river is rising rapidly and the water is rushing through the crevasses at the rate of 15 miles an hour. None of the boats in the vicinity of the wreck have been recovered as yet. The baggage car and smoker are about 100 feet from the tracks only the tops of the cars being visible. The engine has been carried by the current about 50 feet from the tracks.

W. F. Henderson, of the Henderson Comedy company, who is one of the comedians sent to Indiana. The women on his legs are not serious.

It developed Thursday afternoon that only four lives were lost—Herbert Allen and Fireman Joe Bolerman of the Evansville Fire Department, Seaman of the Terre Haute, and an unknown man. Traveling cards bearing the name of J. T. Phillips, a gent's furnisher of F. W. Way, and a valise containing this name was found in the water.

A telegram was received from Columbus, O., making inquiry about W. F. Fletcher, of that city, who is supposed to have been a passenger on the train. On account of the fact that the White river the Louisville & Nashville may be compelled to abandon service temporarily on the west division. The bridge over the river at the time of the report is in a dangerous condition. The Peoria, Decatur & Evansville trains will probably be abandoned after midnight. The backwater from the rise in Black river near Graysville, Ill., is rapidly covering the roadway in that section.

AN OHIO GIRL

Attempts Suicide in Indianapolis Hotel by Shooting.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 12.—A lame, invalid and mysterious sickle was discovered at the hotel on Madison Avenue on Wednesday afternoon. About 1 o'clock Thursday morning a rather pretty and handsomely dressed young woman, appearing to be about 26 or 27 years old, was found dead in the hotel registered as Mrs. K. Jeanne Dots, of Middletown, O. The chambermaids were unable to enter her room during the forenoon, but finally the hotel manager discovered she had been about 2 o'clock one of the bellboys entered the room through the transom. He was horrified to find the young woman fully dressed, lying in the bed with her head down and her body propped at her side. She had shot herself in the temple but was not yet dead. Physicians were sent for and discovered that the bullet had passed through the spinal bone but had glanced off, and they are not hopeless of saving her life. Telegrams have been sent to Middleton in the effort to identify, but replies have not yet come. At the bedside of the young woman was the following note:

"To whom it may Concern—Hold no autopsy, I am a young woman dying alone, and I am now, Mrs. K. Jeanne Dots, 10 Clinton street, Middletown, O."

MIDDLETON, O., March 12.—Mrs. Alice Doty received a telegram Thursday afternoon announcing that her niece had apparently committed suicide at Indianapolis. The young woman was favorably known in this city.

Mrs. Doty is prostrated over the sad occurrence, and is in charge of her physician, who will allow no one to see her.

It is reported that Miss Doty has been disappointed in her love affair with a young man, but Oliver Cousins, an employee of the Miami Cycle works, of that city, Mr. Cousins was seen, and said he knew no reason why she should have committed suicide. Left this day evening on the first train for Indianapolis and will bring the body home.

Will Send Troops to Crete.

London, March 12.—A despatch from Rome to the Daily Mail says that Adm. Canavaro, the Italian who is in command of the combined fleets in Cretan waters, insists upon the necessity of having to resort to the use of the battleship in the defense of the island. The Italian government after consulting with the governments of other powers has therefore decided to send a force of troops to Crete.

The bubonic Plague in Bombay.

BOMBAY, March 12.—The British authority report that up to the date there have been 9,035 cases of bubonic plague in this city, 7,466 of which have been fatal. The returns for the entire presidency show 14,856 cases of plague and 12,304 deaths from the disease.

Senator Harris Names His Successor. NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 12.—Senator Harris, who is not expected to live much longer, has advised Gov. G. W. Clegg in the event of his death to appoint E. W. Carmack, the Memphis editor, to fill his unexpired term. Taylor has consented to do so.

The Cleveland Hunting Party.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 12.—The Cleveland hunting party is still in the vicinity of Hattiesburg. The team of Violet moved south Wednesday and it is thought the party will follow the trail near the Mississippi.

THE NEW RULES

For the Reception of Visitors Diminished by the Office-Seekers at the White House.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—There was a noticeable difference Thursday morning in the office-seekers who have been searching on the white house since the new president entered it. Bright sunshine and balmy air made it a day to be spent outside rather than in, and this had the most effect upon the people who want to serve their country. Many gentlemen were willing, however, to sit for hours in the closely filled corridor that leads to the president's room in the hope of getting in.

The White River is rising rapidly and the water is rushing through the crevasses at the rate of 15 miles an hour—Several Railroads May Abandon Their Service Temporarily.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 12.—Heavy rain Thursday afternoon and Thursday night in Southern Indiana has caused great alarm among the railroad officials of the city. The Evansville and Terre Haute railroads have been closed at the scene of the wreck of the Chicago and Nashville limited near Hazelton, Ind., but they are unable to make any progress toward clearing the great amount of mud. The White river is rising rapidly and the water is rushing through the crevasses at the rate of 15 miles an hour. None of the boats in the vicinity of the wreck have been recovered as yet. The baggage car and smoker are about 100 feet from the tracks only the tops of the cars being visible. The engine has been carried by the current about 50 feet from the tracks.

W. F. Henderson, of the Henderson Comedy company, who is one of the comedians sent to Indiana. The women on his legs are not serious.

It developed Thursday afternoon that only four lives were lost—Herbert Allen and Fireman Joe Bolerman of the Evansville Fire Department, Seaman of the Terre Haute, and an unknown man. Traveling cards bearing the name of J. T. Phillips, a gent's furnisher of F. W. Way, and a valise containing this name was found in the water.

A telegram was received from Columbus, O., making inquiry about W. F. Fletcher, of that city, who is supposed to have been a passenger on the train.

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

"For this reason: That man has blackguarded me in public and through the press time and again. He has also been a great nuisance to me in a bluffer. When he goes to work which might give him an advantage. According to my notion, Siler's ultimatum should be accepted by both of us, and there is no necessity for further talk on the subject. However, if Fletcher can say any

flaws in the bill, then I might think him might hurt his chances of winning. I will gladly meet him half way on a reasonable compromise."

The whole matter of rules was laid before Gen. Siler on Thursday afternoon, and he invited Martin Julian, representing Fletcher, and W. A. Brady, Corbett, to meet George Siler and himself in his office Friday and talk it over.

When Corbett was asked Thursday why he refused to take Fletcher's extended leave, he said that he was on a private road. Wednesday, he replied, and said:

